The Diary of Anne Frank, Act One, Scenes 1–3

Frances Goodrich and Albert Hackett

Pupil's Edition page 342

A True Story

Anne's life changes dramatically when she and her family go into hiding. In the outline of the attic below, illustrate how life has become different for Anne. What kinds of changes must she make? You can use words, symbols, or sketches. Then, on the lines provided, describe what is happening in the outside world. You may need to use the time line in your textbook (pages 344–345) to help you with this activity.

1. How much do the Franks and the Van Daans know about the outside world before Mr. Dussel arrives? What do they learn after his arrival?

2. If you had to go into hiding today, would you want to know what was going on in the outside world? Explain.
