

Name: _____ Class: _____ Date: _____

Dining with Historical Figures

Think of all the interesting people you have learned about in history. What if you could invite anyone from the past to dinner? Use the questions below to create your own dinner party with historical figures.

Guests

List four to six guests whom you would like to invite to dinner.

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

Seating Arrangement

Think of the best way to seat your guests to make them comfortable and to encourage interesting conversation. Make a diagram of your seating arrangement below.

Explain your reasoning for this seating arrangement.

Conversation Topics

List five or six conversation topics for your dinner party. Be sure to identify topics that would engage all the guests at your party.

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

Conversation Starters

Write one question for each of your guests. Remember: this is your chance to find out something unique about this person. What would you ask?

Guest 1: _____

Question: _____

Guest 2: _____

Question: _____

Guest 3: _____

Question: _____

Guest 4: _____

Question: _____

Guest 5: _____

Question: _____

Guest 6: _____

Question: _____

Food

Don't forget the food. Would you serve food from the present day or would you try to match the food with the historical era your guests are from? Write down the menu for your dinner party. Explain the reasons for your choices.
