

Allez, viens à Poitiers!

Chapitres 1–3

Level 1

Avant d'explorer

A. Think about the photos of Poitiers in your textbook. How does the city you've seen in your textbook look different from your city? Where is it located in relation to Paris?

En ligne!

B. You're going on a trip to Poitiers, so you need to make reservations at a local hotel. Many of the Web sites for hotels in Poitiers are in French. Use the Web pages that accompany this activity to figure out what the following French words mean so that you can make your reservations.

French word	English definition
tarif
chambre plan

Write the name and URL of each site you visited to complete Activity B.

Name: _____

URL: _____

Name: _____

URL: _____

Name: _____

URL: _____

C. Explore the sites for this activity to answer the questions below about things to do and see in Poitiers.

1. What is the Futuroscope? What does it look like? _____

2. Name a few specific things to see or do at the Futuroscope. _____

3. What other fun things are there to do and see in Poitiers? Name three attractions and give a brief description of each one. _____

Write the name and URL of each site you visited to complete Activity C.

Name: _____

URL: _____

Name: _____

URL: _____

 Faisons le bilan

D. Cognates are words in two languages that resemble each other and are related in meaning, such as the French word papier and the English word paper. Now think of some possible English cognates for words in French that you have learned from the Web.

Word in French

Possible cognates in English

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

4. _____